

Take Care

Copeland

I'll take care of you, oh
Have faith that when you call my name
I'll be there
It was a straight faced lie I believed
It was a straight faced lie, you would ever leave me
But for now I'll keep believing your words
And soon enough my strength will return
I'll take care of you, oh
Have faith that when you call my name
I'll be there, I'll be right there
So keep breathing, oh keep that sweet heart of yours beating
I'll be right there
Let me draw the blinds for you
You can watch the sunset from
The bed in your hospital room
Until you're sleeping, I'm sure
I don't understand how I found a love so pure
And I'll take care of you, oh
Have faith that when you call my name

I'll be there, I'll be right there
So keep breathing, oh keep that sweet heart of yours beating
I'll be right there, I'll be right there, I'll be right there
Don't lift a finger let me show you
The only way to let this go
Don't lift a finger let me hold you
Hold you here until the pain it has all gone
I'll take care of you, oh
Have faith that when you call my name
I'll be there, I'll be right there
So keep breathing, oh keep that sweet heart of yours beating
I'll be right there, I'll be right there
I'll take care of you, oh
Have faith that when you call my name
I'll be there, I'll be right there
So keep breathing, oh keep that sweet heart of yours beating
I'll be right there, I'll be right there
I'll be right there, I'll be right there
