

Take A Bow

Sister Hazel

Take your reasons and your conscience too
Save your stories for somebody new
I know you're one in a million but that ain't enough for me
How was I supposed to know it was all a show
So baby, take a bow, smile for the crowd
I'm already over your crying shoulder
You go your way and I'll do the same
Leave your memories, they just wash away
And in your diaries you can make what you did okay
How was I supposed to know it was all a show
So baby, take a bow, smile for the crowd
I'm already over your crying shoulder
You go your way
You should really take a bow, smile for the crowd
'Cause I am over your crying shoulder
You go your way and I'll do the same
Do you even hear yourself
Or half the things you say?
Do you even know the lives
You fought away?
So take a bow, smile for the crowd
'Cause I'm over your crying shoulder
You go your way
You should really take a bow, smile for the crowd
I am already over your crying shoulder
You go your way
You should really take a bow, smile for the crowd
'Cause I am over your crying shoulder
You go your way and I'll do the same
Yeah, the same

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnyrics.com/>