Isn't There Someone

Luther Vandross

Another sad day, another lonely day
For all we know some people only cry
They have no good times, no poetry rhymes
They don't know how or when or if or why
Why the goodness never stays
Or why love didn't come again today?
Isn't there someone who knows they're in trouble?
Isn't there someone who sees?
I'll be the someone who cares that you're dying for love
I can be the someone that you need
I know you dream at night and lay your feelings down
And you wish your life could be more like your dreams
What a moonlit sound, your voice is not too loud
But somehow I hear it coming through to me
I pray, you hang on to your dream
And I hope it gives you all the love you need, you need
Isn't there someone who knows that you're hurting?
Is there someone to believe?
Well, I'll be the someone who cares that you're dying for love
I can be the someone that you need
Don't you miss love, I know I often do
That's why, I'm pulling you closer to me
But like anything, you can't see
It's just a little harder to believe
Isn't there someone who loves you completely?
Isn't there someone like me?
Well, I'll be the someone who cares that you're dying for love
I can be the someone that you need
I can be the someone that you need
