

All Nighter

Dylan Jakobsen

Somebody 'round here's staying out all night,
Somebody's got a plan way out in the countryside,
Head on out the driveway,
Cause way off of the highway,
There's the spot that we're all getting at tonight,
Somebody's got the tailgate dropping down,
And everybody's showing up,
You know how word gets around,
Now somebody's got the guitar strumming,
A couple chords and a fifth of something strong,
And will be up 'til the morning sunLight up the bonfire,
Kick it back in the backwoods,
Everybody's gonna feel good,
It's time to unwind right under the sky,
We got the stars shining,
The perfect timing,
To forget about what's going on,
Get a little higher,
Aint nobody headed home,
We're 'bout to pull an all nighterSomebody turn it up and get in the groove,
Whether it's a Haggard song,
You Shook Me All Night Long
Or some Skynyrd blasting through,
Well 12 am turns to 1, 2, 3,
I aint crashing yet,
I'm feeling free,
There's something about this moment,
Hey I just wanna keep on goin'Light up the bonfire,
Kick it back in the backwoods,
Everybody's gonna feel good,
It's time to unwind right under the sky,
We got the stars shining,
The perfect timing,
To forget about what's going on,
Get a little higher,
Aint nobody headed home,
We're 'bout to pull an all nighterWe're gonna mix up,
We're gonna tear it down,
Keep on rockin' 'til the sun comes up,

But 'til it does it's about right here, right now
Light up the bonfire
Light up the bonfire,
Kick it back in the backwoods,
Everybody's gonna feel good,
It's time to unwind right under the sky,
We got the stars shining,
The perfect timing,
To forget about what's going on,
Get a little higher,
Aint nobody headed home,
We're 'bout to pull an all nighter
Pull an all nighter
