Damages

Braid

(verse 1)
I really think that you must be out your mind or forgot to tell time judgin by how late you came in Well today i woke up on the wrong side
You should check the curbside you'll see that i cleaned out your closet(close)
Seems like you wanna go
So Ima let you go
So let me help you out and, I'll walk you to the door
You should of left a long time ago
Its not to late for me to start all over
(bridge)
No more tryin to fix whats unfixable
No need to try and cure the impossible
So do what you want to
You can choose who you want to
If you tried to lose me didnt work cuz
The damage is done
(chorus)x4
The damage the damage the
The damage is done (damage is done)
(verse 2)
Bet you thought that when you left that i cried
Truth is baby im fine
Happy that i got rid of you
Go ahead and leave the keys to my ride
Cab is waitin outside
Once again im way ahead of you
I know you wanna go
So ima let you go

I'll do just fine without ya
Already movin on
I should of left a long time ago
But its not to late to start all over
(bridge)
No more tryin to fix whats unfixable(No,no there no more cryin)
No need to try and cure the impossible

So do what you want to Free to choose who you want to
If you tried to lose me didnt work cuz
the damage is done
(chorus)x8
The damage the damage the
The damage is done (damage is done)
(bridge)
No more tryin to fix whats unfixable
No need to try and cure the impossible
So do what you want to
You can choose who you want to
If you tried to lose me didnt work cuz
the damage is done
(chorus)
The damage the damage the
The damage is done (damage is done)
The damage the damage the
The damage is done (damage is done)
The damage the damage the
The damage is done (and i wont cry no)(damage is done)
The damage the damage the(my life is better now that your gone)
The damage is done
