That Girl

Tales Of Terror

Too many feelings, so why even try
Wouldn't it be simpler to just to die
A sick twisted feeling tearing me apart
Don't ask me to explain
I just couldn't start
Outside I'm ripped up
Inside I'm torn apartAnd deep inside my mind
I'm tattered and I'm worn
These are the feelings of mine
That I just can't explain
Not alone in my brain
There's something that doesn't belong
And I can't stop it when something goes wrongThese feelings always come out
Every time I see that girl
She really jacks me up
She sends my head in a whirl
But no matter what she does
I always come back for more like a foolToo many feelings, so why even try
Wouldn't it be simpler to just to die
A sick twisted feeling tearing me apart
Don't ask me to explain
I just couldn't start
Outside I'm ripped up
Inside I'm torn apart
