Chasing The Light

Amy Studt

Don't go outside
'Cause you never know, you never know-oh-oh
You never know-oh-oh, know-oh-oh
Don't wear that dress tonight
'Cause you never know, you never know-oh-oh
You never know-oh-oh, know-oh-ohWhy go through life with eyes wide shut
Here comes the sting of pain again
Just open up and let it in
That's when the healing can begin
Chasing the light
And when you stay away from dreams
Your world is never what it seems
The end is falling into reach
Chasing the lightBetter hold on tight
'Cause you never know, you never know-oh-oh
You never know-oh-oh, know-oh-oh
Don't sober up tonight
'Cause you never know, you never know-oh-oh
And everything is for show and everybody is so coldDon't go through life with eyes wide shut
Here comes the sting of pain again
Just open up and let it in
That's when the healing can begin
Chasing the light
And when you stay away from dreams
Your world is never what it seems
The end is falling into reach
Chasing the lightAnd when you stay away from dreams
Your world is never what it seems
The end is falling into reach
The end is falling into reach
The end is falling into reachHere comes the sting of pain again
Just open up and let it in
That's when the healing can begin
Chasing the light
And when you stay away from dreams
Your world is never what it seems
The end is falling into reach
Chasing the lightChasing the light, chasing the light
