

Red Sky

Lawson

Lay with me on a street in the city
Find the still in the middle of crazy
Is this all that you wanted?
Just a leaf floating round in the shadows
Holding on tryna find how to let go
When you think you got all that you wanted
Feel the ground shaking
Slowly we are waking up

CHORUS

Theres a red sky
Overhead tonight
Thats how I know
Its gonna be alright
Its gonna be alright
Theres a pier reaching out from the seaside
Breathe it in, breathe it out, open your eyes
Is this all that you wanted?
Feel the waves breaking
No more time wasting
Slowly we are waking up

REPEAT CHORUS

Beautiful wonder
Where did you come from?
Writing your name on the horizon
Filling the sky up
Burning like fire
Yeah

REPEAT CHORUS

Its gonna be alright
Its gonna be alright
