24 / 7

Blood Youth

24/7!It still breaks my heart when you go to work
I wish did more, I know it really hurts
One room for your life long thingsIt still breaks my heart to see you lie to yourself
I know this really isn't easy
To see your family fall apart
From the start
I know this really isn't easyYeah, the longest six years of our lives
We've lost our home, we've lost our minds
Those echoes may not be as loud
But your sadness is all I think about
Yeah, another six years of our lives
We've made our home, we've made our minds
Those echoes may not be as loud
But I hope you're proudI wish I did more, it really hurts
Day by day it's only getting worse
I wish I did more, I wish I didn't drink
Day in day out, trying not to sinkNot to... sinkAnd did I mention how we start from the bottom
How we live like we're rotten, all I had was forgotten
Working 9 - 5, oh what a life
Is this your heaven? 24/724/7It still breaks my heart to see you lie to yourself
I know this really isn't easy
These echoes may not be as loud, but I hope you're proud
I wish I did more, it really hurts
Day by day it's only getting worse
I wish I did more, I wish I didn't drink
Day in day out, trying not to sinkHey, I got a story for you
It starts off me and it'll end up you
Hey I'm only telling the truth
Don't let that money be the end of youDon't let that money be the end of youI wish I did more, it really hurts
Day by day it's only getting worse
I wish I did more, I wish I didn't drink
Day in day out, trying not to sink
