Hear Me Say

Nitzer Ebb

cigarette smoke's hanging on my tears clouding up my mind like all its fears i'm leaving you
you want me to but how i got no shame
so call my name
call nowjust hear me say yeah, hear me say
don't turn away
hear me say
yeah, hear me say
don't push awayanother tear, another day another year and i'll say there's nothing left for me and though it's clear that I'll pay there's a fear that i'll say i'll stay
yeah, pick up that knife and cut up my life
there's nothing you can't touch so if you see some part that you think may start don't stophear me say
yeah, hear me say
don't turn away
yeah, hear me say
don't push awayi've turned it into something a puppet on your string i don't know myself
is that part of your stealth i know what you do
when i say this to you
it means nothing at all you are deaf to my call i know what to do
i am turning from you love's been drummed out of me my love's deaf to your pleajust hear me say

yeah, hear me say
i've turned away
yeah, hear me say
i've pushed awayhear me say
yeah, hear me say
i've turned away
i've pushed away
