Beautiful You

Isyss

Though I have loved it was never enough Until the day you came, I was not the same You brought the love out of me never seen, by anyone I can't explain about how I'm feelin' You touched my soul, made me whole You're beautiful Beautiful you, no one compares to you They can't measure, forever, let's stay together Beautiful you, no one compares to you They can't measure, forever, let's stay together Though some ask why, you and I are together It can't be told (can't be told), love's in need of us both 'Cause they don't know what we hold (what we hold) Future-wise we can go to a place no one knows You're beautiful So let's try to make it right (make it right) Beautiful you, no one compares to you They can't measure, forever, let's stay together Beautiful you, no one compares to you They can't measure, forever, let's stay together You are a dream, I have always dreamed I'll do anything to bring you joy, so much joy You are a dream, I have always dreamed I'll do anything to bring you joy, so much joy Beautiful you, no one compares to you They can't measure, forever, let's stay together Beautiful you, no one compares to you Beautiful you, no one compares to you They can't measure, forever, let's stay together They can't measure, forever, let's stay together They can't measure, forever, let's stay together Beautiful you, no one compares to you
