

Burnt Memories

Stutterfly

Burnt Memories.
Porcelain like an infants eyes
Glowing like a face on fire
Singing this lullaby
Painting a fatal goobye, fatal goodbyeAnd we're bleeding colors of grey
Hear the screaming, fade awayBurn these stains away
No memory, No memory of this
Pain, these stains portray
A memory, A memory, from thisA canvas, yours to beautify
Painting, a peaceful goodbye, a peaceful goodbyeAnd we're bleeding colors of grey
Hear the screaming, fade awayBurn these stains away
No memory, No memory of this
Pain, these stains portray
A memory, A memory, from thisyou'll hear the screaming fade away
White in place of black I prayBurn these stains away
No memory, No memory of this
Pain, these stains portray
A memory, A memory, from this
