

Caught a Glimpse

Blindside

What just happened?
The hollywood empire strikes back
And this time I'm standing in their way
Waited for so long
For this to come along
Now this beauty and beast is starring in my face
Still silent voice whispers stay (but in the crowd I)
Caught a glimpse of your eye
Everything freezes
I'm in an old photograph
I'm back from the start
Caught a glimpse of your eye
Everything freezes and I'm ready
To give you my heart Mayday
Too many voices too much noise in my ear
Don't want to lose contact over this black ocean
Now you sing follow love
I'll be safe in devotion Caught a glimpse of your eye...
