

Tall Hills (feat. Allan Kingdom)

Finding Novyon

[Chorus: Finding Novyon]

She say she down, she want the real
She say she never felt the feeling of nobody for real
She always rockin' Tommy when she rockin' tall heels
I pull up to the party in them very tall hills
She say she down, she want the real
She say she never felt the feeling of nobody for real
She always rockin' Tommy when she rockin' tall heels
I pull up to the party in them very tall hills

[Verse 1: Finding Novyon]

I'm so ahead of y'all, what can I say?
I think you boys are better off just throwing shade
It's becoming more evident, I run debates
I only swipe my credit card when in LA, LA
I put my friends before the money 'cause I get it when I need it
Bitches in your circle hating on me for no reason
How I do this shit, my old friends didn't believe in
I bet you see me now, yeah I bet they see me now [Chorus: Finding Novyon]

She say she down, she want the real
She say she never felt the feeling of nobody for real
She always rockin' Tommy when she rockin' tall heels
I pull up to the party in them very tall hills
She say she down, she want the real
She say she never felt the feeling of nobody for real
She always rockin' Tommy when she rockin' tall heels
I pull up to the party in them very tall hills

[Verse 2: Allan Kingdom]

I need a black barbie from the very tall hills
Who give me sloppy toppy like Dasani done spilled
'Til I get me that Ferrari or that Audemar, chea
She know I'm a foreign papi so she all in my ear
Look, east [?] fuckin' baby, why she like to stand off
Fuckin on her crazy when I get to Crenshaw
These bitches complicated but they thinking it's so simple
These niggas fuckin' lately, they don't ever fuck your mental
So meet me in the lobby, there's not anyone there
Please don't put me in your story, tell your friends to unshare
Please don't leave me in the morning 'til I see you undress
And I see you confess, that you meant to cum quick

Baby girl, she say she [Chorus: Finding Novyon]
Down, she want the real
She say she never felt the feeling of nobody for real
She always rockin' Tommy when she rockin' tall heels
I pull up to the party in them very tall hills
She say she down, she want the real
She say she never felt the feeling of nobody for real
She always rockin' Tommy when she rockin' tall heels
I pull up to the party in them very tall hills
