Borknagar

The energy of the wisdom haze
Rinses the tide as a blend of fire
Upon the shores, where fires blaze
The pulse of time, shades of lightPlains stroked by the slumber sleep
Mountains embraced by rafting time
Swept into a new horizon
The source of life, the course at sightRise into a liquid dream
Where horizons burn, burn till dawn
My domainWhere horizons burn, burn till dawn
Rise into a liquid dream
Where the mountains groan, groans till dawnThe energy of the wisdom haze
Rinses the tide as a blend of fire
Upon the shores, where fires blaze
The pulse of time shades of light
