

Dreamer

Jewel

Don't want to hear no sad songs i say to the darkness but it doesn't respond i ask if I sing a new one will I always sing alone so long I have known only sorrow how could I fail to hear the sound of all the sleeping hearts the timid hopefuls waiting for a path to be clear I can hear a sweet melody beneath it all
and it says brave dreamer dream a new you won't always dream by yourself you won't be dream by yourself everybody's gonna sing along loneliness has bit my heart i know its wounded your heart too but our longing is our revolution its going to bring world anew

and it says brave dreamer dream a new you won't always dream by yourself you won't dream by yourself everybody's got to sing along but is it possible
I say yes its possible made it possible oh I can hear a sweet melody
and it says be brave dreamer dream a new
you won't always dream by yourself no you won't dream by yourself no no you won't dream by yourself everybody's gonna sing along
