Live Forever

sixx_ a.m.

Well, you were right
We never really gave a damn
We spent our lives
Roaming through the wastelandAnd through this all
We should have had a better plan
But we were youngWell, close your eyes
And try to count to seven
And if we die
I'll meet you up in heaven
'Cause you're beautifulWe were so independent
So high on ill intentions
We would explode in fury
We were too scared to worry anywayBut now you're the only thing left worth dying for
You give me a reason I can't ignore
And make me wanna live foreverYou're everything I've been waiting for
For all of these years and a thousand more
You make me wanna live foreverWhen I woke up
And wonderland had gone to hell
It choked me up
Or maybe it was just as well'Cause you and I
We burned up every brain cell
And bridge we hadWe were so independent
So high on ill intentions
We would explode in fury
We were too scared to worry anywayBut now you're the only thing left worth dying for
You give me a reason I can't ignore
And make me wanna live foreverYou're everything I've been waiting for
For all of these years and a thousand more
You make me wanna live foreverOh, you're the only thing left worth dying for
You give me a reason I can't ignore
You make me wanna live foreverYou're everything I've been waiting for
For all of these years and a thousand more
You make me wanna live forever
