

Sometimes

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Haha ah yea I would run down the street bare feet
If I could write my destiny
I can't except you being over me
But when it comes to you, I'll believe anything
Just like when I believe she was nothing
She was something
You went running
How you gonna do me like that
I still want you back
Man I still want you back Oh, Lord have your mercy
For loving him religiously
I should be praying for better things
Instead of praying for a man
Who don't give a fuck about me, oh Sometimes they do come back
And sometimes they don't
Sometimes the love will last
But sometimes it won't If I could write the perfect script
It would be on some notebook shit
And I don't like ya' mama
But I hope she's fine
I think about her from time to time Oh, Lord have your mercy
For loving him religious
I should be praying for better things
Instead of praying for a man
Who don't give a fuck about me, oh Sometimes they do come back
And sometimes they don't
Sometimes the love will last
But sometimes it won't oh Sometimes they do come back
And sometimes they don't
Sometimes the love will last
Sometimes it won't I never felt so confused
I never felt so used and abused

What the hell did I do to you
Where's the man that stood in the rain
Brought me sunflowers everyday Oh, Lord have your mercy
For loving him religiously oh
I should be praying for better things
Instead of praying for a man
Who don't give a fuck about me yeah Sometimes they do come back
Sometimes they don't
They tell you that they love you
Then turn around and leave you there
It isn't right it isn't fair
I can't believe you left me here Sometimes they do come back
But sometimes they don't
And I miss you so bad
But I know that you gone Oh
Coochi
What's the matter
Coochi
What is wrong with your coochi (my coochi)
My coochi
Is broke
What?
Coochi
Can I fix it for you
My coochi (bring it over here)
My coochi, she's broke (Then I can fix your coochi) Ooh Tragedy My coochi don't work no more
Is broke
Is now
I really like to have some fun, but it won't come
It won't come It won't, it won't, it won't because it's broke
It won't, it won't, it won't because it's broke
It won't, it won't, it won't because it's broke It won't
Because it's broke Ugh, thank you
