

Romeos

12

There's a boy with a little black dog
There's a boy with a little black dog
And he looks at his watch for a while
 And the falling years wash away
 his make up
 And the falling years wash away
 his make up
 Just like rain on the fading snow
 He's a lonesome streetside Romeo
You can see him from your window tonite
 This world's a divided place you know
 He's awaiting you
 All the boys are locked in a fortress
 All the girls are locked in a fortress
 Just because it's a crime it could be
 It could be
 Flesh and blood in iron and steel
 Flesh and blood in iron and steel
 Just because it's a crime it could be
 It could be
 We're all lonesome streetside Romeos
You can see us from your window tonite
 This world's a divided place you know
 We're awaiting you
 We're all lonesome streetside Romeos
 This world's a divided place you know
 We're awaiting you, we're awaiting you
 We all change our points of view, sometimes
 You can see us from your window, tonite
 We're awaiting you
 Awaiting you
