Straight Shooter

Bleach

Flat face on the ground
You're unbelievable
A love that's never bound
It's unbelievableStraight shooter without looking
Ready or not, here's what's cooking
You've got me fazed
Your grace is unbelievableYou have filled me once again
You steer me straight to be the man
After your own heartJust as a man so unretrievable
I tried to walk without looking
It's clear to see you're not jokingYou have filled me once again
You steer me straight to be the man
You have filled me once again
You steer me straight to be the man
After your own heartYeah, straight shooter
Come on, straight shooterAnd you have filled me once again
You steer me straight to be the man
You have filled me once again
You steer me straight to be the man
After your own heart
