You Should Know

Samuel Larsen

Your six-inch, black boots, walk you, down my boulevard
Cos' someone, left you, let me, find out what you areSomebody like you, a girl with an attitude
Well maybe this is hard for you
You should know, you should know by now
I don't wanna own you, I don't wanna trust you
And I don't wanna fall for you
You should know, you should know by nowIf you wanna feel like, a bad girl, Don't lie
I like honesty (oooh)
You should know you should know by now
Cos' we get no sleep, no lights, all night
I know what it takes (oooh)
You should know you should know by now
You should know you should know by now
You should know you should know by nowYour leopard, print skirt, won't work, unless its on my floor
I'll kiss it better, get her, beggin' me for more
