Allegoria

She Screams Remedy

I'll be erased, only time can tell how it will happen
Someone will replace childlike with naive imperfectionsAnd "cast away your sins and you'll be saved"
The tales that you've been told, in search of all thats gold or so they sayFalling from grace is something that I wish could really happen Solely for the taste, of a reassuring plan on how it all beganAnd "cast away your sins and you'll be saved"
The tales that you've been told, in search of all thats gold
"Cast away your sins and you'll be saved"
The tales that you have told in search of all that's gold
Or so they say
