

White Night, Big City

Chuck Prophet

White night, big city, white night

White night, big city, white nightWhat do you know

What do you know about

What do you know

What do you know about

What went on thirty years ago?White night, big city, white night

(Breaking the law in the great big city)

White night, big city, white night

(Breaking the law in the great big city)What can I do

What can I do about

What can I do

What can we do about

What went on thirty years ago?White night, big city, white nightWell he held his arms out open wide

He had enemies on every side

But a little man in a fit of rage

Shot him down, made him pay

Oh he held his arms out open wideWhite night, big city, white night

White night, big city, white nightWhite night, big city, white night

(Breaking the law in the great big city)
