Spectrum Of Eternity

Soilwork

I feel Iâ€™m done with this shell of mine
Separated from the one I knew
Iâ€™ll kill every minute on hold
While the ocean brings me back to life
Iâ€™ve lived, Iâ€™ve breathed, Iâ€™ve learned to be deceived
Sheltered for what itâ€™s worth, forced to make it work
I feel Iâ€™m chosen to see what others havenâ€™t seen
Itâ€™s not a tragedy, itâ€™s just reality but how it makes me believe

Now I see a spectrum of eternity, the remedy is yours
A thousand of demands, a never-ending glance of fate, of fate
Iâ€™m yours, Iâ€™m yours

Three years since I was reborn, a brutal insight
Never knew it could do so much to stir my soul up
Itâ€™s been relentless, Iâ€™ve felt deprived of my own life
Stuck on the other side of who I was enlightened by

Embrace me, for one last time, take me there
Somethingâ€™s out there and it wonâ€™t leave me astray

Embrace me, for one last time, take me thereâ€¦
Somethingâ€™s out there and it wonâ€™t leave me astray
A thousand of demands, a never-ending glance of fate, of fate
Iâ€™m yours, Iâ€™m yours
