

Bulletproof

Rilo Kiley

if you think you're bulletproof, you're right because you've weathered all my slings and arrows well if you think i'm paranoid, that's fine cause i've got evidence on my side if you want to come over tonight that's fine because i have no plans please be kind, don't drop the rock on me how many blows to the belly will this thing take that we refer to as our true love? we both know it's dead and it's been dying for some time but we refuse to let it go please be kind, don't drop the rock on me don't go outside and discover that you like being free cause if you did you'd be dropping the rock on me
