Judey on a Street

Okkervil River

All day I'm gonna hit on the drum
Takes a little time for her to come
You're just a girl on a street
Ah, take it awayWalk around, what d'you say?
That how the whole world sadly sung
While you were wishing you were young
You're just a girl on a streetThe snow it softly falls outside
And you're watching it, spacing out
And you're lying on your side
You wanna get involved in prayer
As for the church, you don't know whereYou're just a girl on a street
You're just a girl on a streetWith your hair going gray
Eyes like greenish macramÃ©
Hey, the record goes likeI drove in my new sedan
Rain hit my windshield like an open hand
I headed north in a haze of speed
I knew exactly what we need
I stood in a church with a shield on the sign
The smell of incense in the aisles
I felt like a giant spinning wheel
And I know how the minister must feel
And when his wife takes off her gown
And then she lets her long hair down
Lit by the world that's going roundShe's just a girl on a street
She's just a girl on a street
She's just a girlOnce I died in a dream
And the world without me went fine
And then years went by
Take me to that city in the sky
The clouds are aquamarine
The architect remains unseen
I'll live my life out on your street
Up where the bluebirds flyHelp me to the other sideAnd when I get to the other side
I'll give those harp strings a strum
I'm gonna hit on that drum
I'm gonna wait for my girl to come
You know it takes a little time
