Poison Gorgeous

Violet Indiana

I think you're addicted
Addicted love you
A lonely existence
So down on yourselfAnd I'll be there watching
You lift your hand while you drown
And no self worth
Is bringing me downShe's walking all over you
And there is nothing you can do
She's walking all over you
And there is nothing I can do
She's talkingYou need me to rescue
As death is on the ground
And though I can still kill
Kill you from yourself'Cause you can keep birds alive
So cool to break you
It's starting to search youShe's breaking you downShe's walking all over you
And there is nothing you can do
She's walking all over you
And there is nothing I can doShe's walking all over you
And there is nothing I can do
She's talking
