

Once or Twice

Chicago

Girl

Looked you over once or twice
I think that you are very nice
You're just meant for meHey girl
I think you got a messed up mind
But if you will take some time
Maybe I can set you freeI am not trying to be
What I am not
But I think what you need
Is what I gotHey honey
Won't you give a little time with me
And see what will beOh girl
Now I'm no philosopher
But I can offer you the cure
To mend your broken heartHey
I know, yeah I know you are not blind
I know you see my messed up mind
Can't you see my broken heart, tooSo won't you
Bring your heart and your mind
It's out on the run
Fuse it with my broken heart
In my mind
We'll be oneHey honey won't you give me all your lovin'
Lovin'
Lovin'Now listen to me, baby
Just bring your heart and your mind
It's out on the run
Fuse it with my broken heart
In my mind
We'll end up oneWon't have to try too hard
If it's in the cards
We'll just make love a goGirl
I looked you over once or twice
Know that you're very nice
You're just meant for meHey girl
Yes, I think you got a messed up mind
And now that you know yours is just like mine
Baby, won't you set me freeJust bring the little lovin'
Do your daddy good

We'll cook it up
We'll go get down
Don't you notice little lowness in us all
