

Can I Get Down 1X?

Coolio

I'm gettin' bunions from all the disrespectful sisters in my face
I get love, but when push come to shove I'm postin' solo, diggin' me out the ditch
Hey, hey, Cool, gimme some chips, fool
Ain't that a bitch? Ain't no cash just fallin' out the sky, you hella high
Oh why oh why did she touch the tie?
But I start on full wit a gangsta limp
Morris couldn't see this pimp, I'm backslappin' gimps True, I'll be in the cut, but you notice me
Try to throw with me, now you wanna roll with me
Fate, I'll lead you left instead of right
Tonight's the night, so let's get the situation tight I hear 'em tryin' to play a hate me on the under
My mamma said, "Never let a sucker take you asunder"
Don't be gettin' outta line where it concerns mine
It might be your time, but it's my rhyme Can I get down one time
To make the people say yeah
An' nobody won't care?
Can I get down one time without
All the criticism an' media in my business? Can I get down one time
An' release my rhyme an' speak my mind?
Can I get down one time?
Can I get down one time? I take my picture with a smile like Jack
'Cause I'm back, you picturin' all them chips in stacks
I got love, though, don't be no stank hoe
I'm not fallin' for the gank, yo, God, I thank, though Enemies, it's your decision, the gift I been given
Got you in the life I'm livin'
Watch 'em say sayin' like Marley Mike
"Your game ain't right, you be slippin' every night" I'm hoverin' up in the nest with the claws out
'Cause he had his paws out, when he paused out
He's out, now it's in with the new
In with the true, you know how these thieves do Can I get down one time
To make the people say yeah
An' nobody won't care?
Can I get down one time without
All the criticism an' media in my business? Can I get down one time
An' release my rhyme an' speak my mind?
Can I get down one time?
Can I get down one time? I can't do what I want or how I wanna
There's too much drama, so what is it you want, huh?
We tryin' to make it to the tizzy
I'll be a hella busy bee, the gizzy through the frizzy is we Tryin' to have somethin', we goin' off frontin'

'Cause nothin' leaves nothin'
An' nothin' means we head bumpin'
Pumpin', no punk can hit this, mind's unstable
Twistin' me a fable, somethin' sweet like Sable You shoulda reached out an' grabbed it an' got his pay nice
Jealousy got him dropped, with his neck sliced
Liquor be revealin' the homies true feelings
So, I be willin' to turn into a villain Then if you're still with me, you got to chill with me
Bustin' lyrics with a skill, when they deal with me
Never senseless, thank you for your business
An' I got more rhymes than L.A. Times got headlines Can I get down one time
To make the people say yeah
An' nobody won't care?
Can I get down one time without
All the criticism an' media in my business? Can I get down one time
An' release my rhyme an' speak my mind?
Can I get down one time?
Can I get down one time? Can I get down one time
To make the people say yeah
An' nobody won't care?
Can I get down one time without
All the criticism an' media in my business? Can I get down one time
An' release my rhyme an' speak my mind?
Can I get down one time?
Can I get down one time? Can I get down one time
To make the people say yeah
An' nobody won't care?
Can I get down one time without
All the criticism an' media in my business? Can I get down one time
An' release my rhyme an' speak my mind?
Can I get down one time?
