Paris Green

Babylon Zoo

Every time I breathe, I think I might
Every time I sleep IFashion dies with no respect
I never want to be like you
My poison colors never clash
With my shiny, shiny shoes, ohWho will buy my old Chanels?
Who will buy my fake furs?
I can't live without my slacks
On the catwalk it's a gas, ohYour bright colors they cloud my vision
Designer shirts they call this fashion
Insane robots parade in tandem
Don't make me sick, let me see youParis green, Paris greenSmile and say will you buy this
It's a world exclusive
To me the colors are the same
And it's driving me insane, ohWho will buy my old Chanels?
Who will buy my fake furs?
I can't live without my slacks
On the catwalk it's a gas, ohYou're bright colors they cloud my vision
Designer shirts they call this fashion
Insane robots parade in tandem
Don't make me sick, let me see youParis green, Paris green
Paris green, Paris green
