Runnin' Too Deep

Keith Richards

We scorch the earth
For all it's worth
Last night
You in ecstasy
Now you don't remember meIt's runnin' too deep
It's runnin' too deep for meThe sirens and the curfews
Through the night
Everybody's locked up tight
What's going on
It's been dark for much too longIt's runnin' too deep
Runnin' too deep
Runnin' too deep for meIf heaven looses face
What will take its placeWe've torn the treasure from the land
Watched it turn to ashes in our hands
