Palace of Fantasy

Freedom Call

Lost in the shadows
The claws of evil are waiting
In shades of treason
A land of coldness foreverI'm the one who defends the world
One step closer to the end
I'm the one who prevents the curse
One step closer to the end(A palace for a fantasy)
When I come to my land of fantasy
Where I fly on wings of harmony
All my passions inflame
(Welcome to the palace for a fantasy)When I come to my land of fantasy
Fly away from shades of misery
(Fly away from misery)
Hope and passion remain
(Welcome to the palace for a fantasy)Back into reality
I'm facing greed and hate
In touch with danger all the time
It's hiding everywhereSearching for a mystery
Somewhere in the night
A journey to my history
I'm standing up to fightI'm the one who defends the world
One step closer to the end
I'm the one who prevents the curse
One step closer to the end(A palace for a fantasy)
When I come to my land of fantasy
Where I fly on wings of harmony
All my passions inflame
(Welcome to the palace for a fantasy)When I come to my land of fantasy
Fly away from shades of misery
(Fly away from misery)
Hope and passion remain
(Welcome to the palace for a fantasy)Fighting for honor, I'm praying for survival
I'm facing the end of the world
Fathers in Heaven are steering my future
And telling me tales from the past
Almighty kingdom, I'll never surrender
That fires of passion remain(A palace for a fantasy)
When I come to my land of fantasy
Where I fly on wings of harmony

All my passions inflame
(Welcome to the palace for a fantasy)When I come to my land of fantasy
Fly away from shades of misery
(Fly away from misery)
Hope and passion remain
(Welcome to the palace for a fantasy)When I come to my land of fantasy
Where I fly on wings of harmony
All my passions inflame
(Welcome to the palace for a fantasy)When I come to my land of fantasy
Fly away from shades of misery
(Fly away from misery)
Hope and passion remain
(Welcome to the palace for a fantasy)
