Sippin on down
sippin around
tippin up a another cupa

12 gauge double barrel
loaded full of buckshot brewin up that mountain dew it boilin like a crockpot deep out in theese southern woods and far away from evrything out amongst the tombstones cookin up that hurracain take a sip for testin then' pour a little on the ground soak up in that goregia clay and now i'm waitin for the sound 150 year burried deep in the earths grip soon there gonna dancin when that cool water hits there lips made from the mill
out a feild cursed by whodo water from a well
striaght outta hell
cursed by vodoo
stir it up cook it to the point that it evaporates 173 degrees boilin up the dead awake

sippin around
tippin up another cupa

sippin around
tippin up another cuppa

sippin around
tippin up another cuppa

sippin around
tippin up another cuppa

100 gallons of that rot gut top stock ready for the shippin in a heavy chevy small block foot to the floor ridin mean like an out law duckin dodgin road blocks like boxing with an south paw these dark and dusty roads lite up by the full moon comin round the corner muffler soundin like a monsoon i got the devils meanest demons ridin shotgun straped with a winchester case they have to pop one we headin for the next county on the southin trail
g man and revenue hot on me southern tail hang out the window one blast with the buckshot needs get em off my ass so that i don't get got white lighter, sugar whiskey, stump pole, skull cracker, alley bourbon, city gin, wildcat, block and tackle its how we do it

how we get it to the next level have us huntin bitches down with pick axe and shovel gone of that good shit hit ya like a mule kick pick a hater out the crowd and hit em with a pool stick hallucinations seein shit got ya climbin trees passed out in a ditch like a bitch down on ya knees don't even give a fuck when the spirts hit ya brain four shots is all ya need certified gone insane lets get it crackalackin one more 'gain for the pimpin take the jug

and turn it up chug it down and fuck the sippin
