Scorned

Megafaun

[Music - Lazaro / Lyrics - Suzuki] nihilistic conquest... ravish your belief in god heaps of carnage... march through the path of scattered remnants a gift for mankind that was heaven sent the mortars of annihilation these are your faithful... dead from the writings of false scriptures venomous supremacy... spreads within the mind of the wicked lust for retaliation after the fall of dawn just to die in sight of the sun brought to light... a cause unbeknown to them commence the process of deterioration Christianity abhorred begin the decimation of reverence your life and spirit... scorned cleanse the earth through havoc-induced ferocity rejoice... this ravishing of unmerciful beauty no god... no beast... opening the gates... flood the earth with cruelty burning the path to peace... bow to your god of impurity no god... no beast... carnal dreams of pestilence and decay awaken to your world of god... now devoid and abandoned blinded from the sight... so impure and callous vision erased...
salvation has renounced the hearts of the fallen
...salvation has renounced the hearts of the fallen the balance of faith has been shifted consumed by the light... vehement for deliverance spreads the contamination within the righteous leading them towards the abyss of blood and wickedness so be it... i am the enemy so be it... i am the one you seek so be it... i have no sympathy or empathy it is done... my words and life bleed blasphemy (repeat verses)

only to leave man to shit upon this kingdom of divinity
