

Spread Too Thin

The Dirty Heads

I'm spread way too thin,
Everybody wants to know what's happenin
I'm spread way too thin, what's the big rush now?
Tell me why you're rushing
I'm spread way too thin,
Everybody wants to know what's happenin
I'm spread way too thin, what's the big rush now?
Tell me why you're rushing
Why you rushing? Why you rushing?

Everybody's calling, but I just need some time
I just need some room to breathe again
Somewhere to clear my mind
You don't need to be here, all up in my face
We need to find the right solution to put you in your place

I said hey
I got a lot to say to you
I hear what your saying?s not true
So this is what I?m gonna do
Look at me I?m gonna let you know

I'm spread way too thin,
Everybody wants to know what's happenin
I'm spread way too thin, what's the big rush now?
Tell me why you're rushing
I'm spread way too thin,
Everybody wants to know what's happenin
I'm spread way too thin, what's the big rush now?
Tell me why you're rushing
Why you rushing? Why you rushing?

This has got me twisted in the worst kind of way
You put me down when I'm not around and then you smile at my face
You don't need a home, no. What you need is a cage
I bottled up all of these emotions made a monster of the rage

I said hey I gotta lot to say to you
Seems you got something to prove

So this is what I'm gonna do
Look at me I'm gonna tell you so

I'm spread way too thin,
Everybody wants to know what's happenin
I'm spread way too thin, what's the big rush now?
Tell me why you're rushing
I'm spread way too thin,
Everybody wants to know what's happenin
I'm spread way too thin, what's the big rush now?
Tell me why you're rushing
Why you rushing? Why you rushing?

Let me breath
Let me chill for awhile
Let me breath
You know it's not my style
Let me breath
Let me chill for awhile
Let me breath
You know it's not my style

I said hey I gotta lot to say to you
I hear what you're saying's not true
So this is what I'm gonna do
Look at me I'm gonna let you know

I'm spread way too thin,
Everybody wants to know what's happenin
I'm spread way too thin, what's the big rush now?
Tell me why you're rushing
I'm spread way too thin,
Everybody wants to know what's happenin
I'm spread way too thin, what's the big rush now?
Tell me why you're rushing
Why you rushing? Why you rushing?
