Vanishing Tribe

Glass Tiger

My tribe is fading
Tribe
My tribe is fading
Tribe
My tribe is fading
Tribe
Vanishing tribe, vanishing loveWell as the sun goes down it marks the end of day
When the moon comes out it takes my breath away
In my memories the children dance and sing
Bringing happiness that only children bring
I've seen the new world come
I see the old world go
I've watched the sky shed tears
'Til rivers overflow
I feel the mountains move
I'm watching nature die
I hear the young men singing
As the old men cryVanishing tribe, vanishing love
Vanishing tribe, vanishing love
I've had my life, my time has come
Vanishing tribeNow as I near the light a shadow follows me
On such a tribal night she sets her children free
They can take my life but they can't take my home
Dance closer to the light, I vanish all alone.Vanishing tribe, vanishing love
Vanishing tribe, vanishing love
I've had my life, my time has come
Vanishing tribeOh
I see a distant light
The stars are burning bright
My tribe is fading
My tribe is fading
My tribe is fadingVanishing tribe, vanishing love
Vanishing tribe, vanishing love
I've had my life, my time has come
Vanishing tribe, vanishing loveVanishing tribe, vanishing love
Vanishing tribe, vanishing love
I've had my life, my time has come
Vanishing tribe, vanishing loveVanishing tribe, vanishing love

Vanishing tribe, vanishing love

Songwriters
HANSON, MICHAEL/CONNELLY, AL/REID, SAM/PARKER, WAYNE JOHNPublished by Lyrics Â© Sony/ATV Music Publishing LLC

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/