

I'll Never Love No One But You

Joe Carson

Tears and a sad broken heart dear
And a love that has faded away a few old love letters, a picture, a curl are all that you left me today

It's so hard to believe those sweet lips could deceive Ever dream is a dream dear of you
Though the bright rising sun
Tells me our love is done
But darling I'll always love you

Though this old heart you've broken
To you I'll ever be true
Though I'll dream every dream
That you still love me
And Darling I'll always love you

Though you've had your say and I'm lonely
Your happy though I'm oh so blue
And a new love you say
Will soon come my way
I'll never love no one but you.
