Ignorance & Bliss

Covenant

And I extend an open hand
Over the horizon
Waiting for the sun
To fall into my palm
And hide inside my fist
In a foreign land
Watching the sea
Reaching for the sun
Rising like a lover
For the promised kissRising like a lover
For the promised kissIn foreign lands
Watching the sea
Reaching for the sun
Rising like a lover
And I extend an open hand
Over the horizon
Waiting for the sun
To fall into my palm(Repeat)In foreign lands
Watching the sea
Reaching for the sun
Rising like a lover
And I extend an open hand
Over the horizon
Waiting for the sun
To fall into my palmAnd I extend an open hand
Over the horizon
Waiting for the sun
To fall into my palm
And hide inside my fist
In a foreign land
Watching the sea
Reaching for the sun
Rising like a lover
For a promised kissRising like a lover
For the promised kissI am running for all the things I'll never get
I am running for all the things I haven't lost
I am running for innocence and (simple dreams?)
I am running for ignorance and bliss(Repeat)I am running for all the things I'll never get
I am running for all the things I haven't lost

I am running for innocence and (simple dreams?)
I am running for ignorance and blissFor ignorance and bliss!
