Sound The Bell

Batsauce

I went out and got married
Thought I'd live a happy life
But before I could settle down
Another man had stole my wifeWell, sound the bell, yes, I feel so sad
Nobody knows the troubles I had, noIf you see my woman
Won't you tell her from me
That you left me crying
And my heart's in miseryWell, sound the bell and I feel so sad
Nobody knows the troubles I hadYou may think I'm crazy
But I'll never love again
I'm going back home to my mama
'Cause she's my only friendSound the bell, Lord, I feel so sad
Nobody knows the troubles I had, no
Nobody knows the troubles I had
Nobody knows the troubles I had
