

Tell Me Why

M.i.a.

You won't give me no more
You won't give me no more
You won't give me no more
You won't give me no more

You won't

Tell me why

Things change but it feels the same

If life is such a game

How come people all act the same

Tell me why

Things change but it feels the same

If life is such a game

How come people all act the same

I been coming up for a while on your radar

I know I made it just by counting up my hater

I got a speedboat, get away like later

You better have a load of cheddar if you ain't got data

'Cause you can live it up, pull it up, start reeling

Start throwing hands up like you're mad at the ceiling

You can make a killing but don't forget the feeling

People stealing money and down with double dealing

You won't give me no more

You won't give me no more

Tell me why

Things change but it feels the same

If life is such a game

How come people all act the same

Tell me why

Things change but it feels the same

If life is such a game

How come people all act the same

You can take me courthouse

You can take me jail

You can take me anywhere

But you can't get me there

You can ask me where I'm going

And I'll tell you crazy

But when I get to where I'm going

You should come with me
You been staying up, pull me up, start reeling
I'm throwing up my hands like I'm mad at the ceiling
Tell me why
Things change but it feels the same
If life is such a game
How come people all act the same
Tell me why
Things change but it feels the same
If life is such a game
How come people all act the same
I got roof on my head, I got food in my pot
And the old ways are dead with the new ones we got
There is water in my pot and I'm half and half not
And the old kind is broke with the new kind we bought
I drink alcohol, know the words to 'Wonderwall'
I rewrite the code while I do my time on road
Tell me why
Things change but it feels the same
If life is such a game
How come people all act the same
Tell me why
Things change but it feels the same
If life is such a game
How come people all act the same
Tell me why
Things change but it feels the same
If life is such a game
How come people all act the same
