

Nature Boy

Abbey Lincoln

There was a boy,
A very strange, rejected boy,
They said he wandered very far, very far,
Over lands and sea,

A little shy
And sad of eyes,
But very wise was he.
And then one day

A magic day he passed my way
And we spoke of many things
Fulls and kings
And this said to me:

"The greatest thing
You ever learn
It's just to love
And belove in return".
