The Sinners Cross

Nocturnal Rites

Disengage your fear and see the devil in the eye Rearrange the truth and be a believer to the lie Is there a way to find, peace of mind in the life you lifeSearch the inner soul
And you'll find the rainbow's end againFar away, far from here
Cross the river, on a shore of another time
Far away, far from here
Cross the river on the other side
There it lies, far awaySeek to find your remedy
Your life is on the wire
Living on the disbelief
Salvation is the crime
