Outlaws, Heroes & Friends

©2012 J. K. Coltrain - key A1.) I left my home for Nashville, guitar In hand and a breifcase full of dreams

Set out to make my mark

On the country music scene2.) It wasn't long before I come to realize

Just how hard that might be

Seems on every corner, everywhere I looked

There were two or three just like me3.) So I played the bars and honkytonks Up and down Broadway, all the time thinkin Lord There's gotta be a better way

Then I met a man named Ernest at The Midnite Jamboree

And for reasons I may never know he took a likin' to meCHORUS

I miss mu outlaws, heroes and friends

They each wrote a chapter in a book that never ends

I can hardly wait till I see them all again

Those Outlaws, Heroes & friends4.) So I took the stage with Waylon, George & Conway too

I did a lot of things a country boy only dreamed he's do

Now there's some folks sayin' they don't wanna here our music anymore, but that's okay we had our day that's for sure

REPEAT CHORUS
