

Good Night Baby

Brenton Wood

Good night, baby, sleep tight, darlin'
Tomorrow is another day
Good night, darlin', see you tomorrow
And I'll be around to sayEach new day my love grows stronger
I wish each day could last a little longer
So that there'd be more time we could share
Gee, I hate to see you goBut good night, baby, sleep tight, darlin'
If you're lonely pick up the phone and talk to me
And around about midnight if you can't stand it
Put on your robe, come on sleepwalk to meEvery night is never endin'
I've spent each moment just pretending
Dreaming that you're right here by my side
But when I wake my dreams have liedOoh, ooh, each new day my love grows stronger
I wish each day could last a little longer
So that there'd be more time we could share
Gee, I hate to see you goBut good night, baby, sleep tight, darlin'
If you're lonely pick up the phone and talk to me
Good night, baby, sleep tight, darlin'
