Don't Worry

Aaliyah

This track is fly, mmm
Ain't no need for you, baby
It ain't what you think
So don't worry
Remember back in the day when
We vowed it was special
And we'd always stay down
No matter where we went you'd stay in touch
Two people that were just so in love
Now you cryin that you feelin like things
Ain't really been the way they used to be
You say that it seems like I've changed
But I'm still the same
There's no need for you, To worry 'bout me
Baby, Don't worry 'bout me, No, no
It ain't what you think, You still got me
So don't worry, Don't worry
Even tho it seems, You're losin me
And things, Ain't what they used to be
Baby, I ain't gon leave
So don't worry, Don't worry 'bout, Don't worry 'bout me
I was headed out to Cali for a show
Told you that on Tuesday I'd be home
Left a message on your voicemail sayin I
Would call you later to warn you I'm alright
Now you callin just to tell me that you heard
I was seen in a Bentley wit my girls

On the way to the spot where people hang
But nothin's changed
There's no need for you, To worry 'bout me
Baby, Don't worry 'bout me, No
It ain't what you think, You still got me
So don't worry, Don't worry
Even tho it seems, You're losin me
And things, Ain't what they used to be
Baby, I aint gon leave
So don't worry, Don't worry 'bout, Don't worry 'bout me
---Repeat---

There's no need to worry 'bout what I do with ??
Don't worry 'bout a *amn thang
Don't worry about what I do in my town
Don't worry 'bout a *amn thang
Don't worry 'bout how I do when I put it down
Don't worry 'bout a *amn thang
Trust in me everything's gonna be alright
Don't worry 'bout a *amn thang
I'm gonna work it out, I'll be home tonight
There's no need for you, To worry 'bout me
Baby, Don't worry 'bout me, No
It ain't what you think, You still got me
So don't worry, Don't worry
Even tho it seems, You're losin me
And things, Ain't what they used to be
Baby, I ain't gon leave
So don't worry, Don't worry 'bout, Don't worry 'bout me
---Repeat 2x---
