Dark Matter Gods

Agalloch

Cast away in solitude between the divide of dimensions
Frozen in timeless aura, a catalyst of colors
The abyss...
I was born in the fibers of oblivion; the saturnine keeper of mystery and malevolent patriarch of chaos...they fade into the shadows I cast... (evermore in sorrow)Darkness! Chaos! A malediction! An abomination!!...they fade into the silence I keep...Dark Matter Gods
The abyss is the elder of time
Dark Matter Gods
The void is the archetype of beingFor each step; nihility, a paradox, an epoch, a quantum crevasse...
Worlds are lost in my path...they fade into footsteps I leave...Dark Matter Gods
The dark mass is the father of all
