

You and I

Pat McGee Band

You and I, let's lay down our pasts tonight
You, yes you, why won't you see this thing through?
What I wouldn't change I think I've gone insaneAnd I don't want you to be over now this now
I can't stand the pain anymore
You were the best of love what was I thinking of
And I don't knowYou and I, can't understand reasons why
And you, yes you when did your heart find a new?
I guess I could have changed
Or should I have stayed the same?And I don't want you to be over now this now
I can't stand the pain anymore
You were the best of love what was I thinking of Well I don't know, I don't knowI guess I should have changed
Could I have stayed the sameAnd I don't want you to be over now this now
I can't stand the pain anymore
You were the best of love what was I thinking ofAnd I don't want you to be over now this now
I can't stand the pain anymore
You were the best of love what was I thinking of
I don't know and I don't know what you were saying
And I don't know and I don't know and I don't know
