Read My Scars

Coroner

My cry echoes on a naked wall
Cold like a crystal
Numbered hours creeping
Insanity strangles realityWeakened, crushed, formed
New dimensions arise
My mind becomes a fortress
Impregnable, shutThe walls between us make the public safe
Read my scars, see why I'm like that
Read my scars and don't ask me whyWhisper turns into a scream
Light would burn my skin
My legs, useless instruments
My eyes are almost blindSee the sunny world outside
Ignorant of the fact
Faking shock, forgetting fast
Freedom is a giftCry echoes on a naked wall
Cold like a crystal
Numbered hours creeping
Insanity strangles realityThe walls between us make the public safe
Read my scars, see why I'm like that
Read my scars and don't ask me whyThe walls between us make the public safe
Read my scars, see why I'm like that
Read my scars and don't ask me why
