Fairytale

Edguy

Yeah, giants of stone build up my desire
No one could tell us the secret of fire
The hinger for wisdom deep in your heart
You can't accept that you're living apartWater runs down through the river
Lord, You are the only to deliver
Night, stay nightIn the night's nothing is white
Now a knowledge not a light
Lord, will You tell me why someday?Fairytale life is one big fairytale
A book of seven seals
Someone tell me why and howI'm always told to kneel down and pray
What shall I do to stay on my way
Questions borrow through my brain
Pound and disturb and drive me insaneLost in visions of knowledge
I'll never owe night to nightIn the night's nothing is white
Now a knowledge not a light
Lord, will You tell me why someday?
Tell me what is time, yeah
