

The Life and Death of Mr. Badmouth

PJ Harvey

Baby, you got a, got a bad, badmouth
Everything poison, coming out, coming out
Cheating, lying since the day you were born Someone ought to rinse it out with soapWash it out, wash it out, wash it outNo kind words are coming out of your mouth
Plenty goes in but nothing good comes out
Badmouth, sad mouth, you were an unhappy child
That doesn't make your lying tongue alrightWash it out, wash it out, wash it out
Wash it out, wash it out, wash it out'Cos everything is poison
You'll be the unhappy one
Your lips taste of poison
You're gonna be left aloneWhen you told me every word you said
Came from voices talking in your head
Oh baby, I just think you're out for what you can't get Your badmouth has killed off everything we hadWash it out, wash it out, wash it out
Wash it out, wash it out, wash it outYour lips taste of poison
You'll be the unhappy one
Everything is poison
You'll be in the corner cryingYour lips taste of poison
You'll be the unhappy one
Your lips taste of poison
You're gonna be left alone
